ORDER:

Based on the surprise check conducted by the Anti Corruption Bureau Officials on 30.11.2007, over the office of the Regional Transport Officer, Proddatur, Kadapa District on the allegation that the Officers and staff are collecting bribes and mamools from the public which discharging their duties and thereby indulging in corruption the Transport Commissioner has initiated Disciplinary proceedings against Sri T.Bhaskar Reddy, Jr.Asst., along with others

2. In his representation 4th read above, Sri T.R.Bhaskar Reddy, has submitted his explanation and after examining the explanations of all the Charged Officers, an Enquiry Officer has been appointed vide G.O. 5th read above.

3. In the D.O. letter 6th read above the Enquiry Officer has submitted his enquiry report and in so far as Sri T.R.Bhaskar Reddy, Jr.Asst., is concerned held that the charge framed against him as proved and further stated that however, in view of the observation made in the last paragraph of the Analysis and Assessment, it is left for the disciplinary authority to assess the severity of the irregularity committed by the Charged Officers.

4. In the memo 7th read above, a copy of Enquiry Report was communicated to the Charged Officer. In his representation 8th read above while citing certain Court Judgements, Sri T.R.Bhaskar Reddy mainly contended that during the enquiry, the witnesses were not produced and not examined which is against the Law and requested to drop further action against him.
